"Virtual facilitation has been a steep learning curve for many of us, trading our bags of three-dimensional soft throw-able objects, teambuilding props, and debriefing tools for two-dimensional virtual objects displayed on computer screens both large and small."

—Jim Cain
Editor, The Learning Curve

- THE LEARNING CURVE provides compelling information, ideas, and insights on how to effectively navigate the transition from facilitating in the real world to facilitating in a virtual one.
- Approximately 240 pages, featuring 40 articles
